

Tri-State Business Women Code of Ethics

TSBW is a group of professional adult women striving to be an effective professional association recognizing the importance of business as well as personal relationships. We respect the inherent dignity and worth of the individual and we strive to always conduct our professional lives in a trustworthy manner.

As a member of the Tri-State Business Women, I pledge myself to the highest standard of ethical conduct and honorable behavior in my relationships with fellow members, potential members, suppliers to TSBW, the public, my employees, my customers, my suppliers, and other stakeholders of my business.

I pledge to:

- Treat all individuals with dignity and respect.
- Act with the highest level of honesty and integrity.
- Create and foster an environment of fairness.
- Promote positive leadership and lead by example.
- Follow both the letter and intent of the law.
- Maintain the confidentiality of information of a privileged or private nature entrusted or known to me by virtue of my being a member, officer, Board member, committee chair, or committee member.
- Refuse to engage in, or countenance, activities for personal gain that may conflict with the interests of TSBW.
- Communicate association internal and external statements in a truthful and accurate manner.
- Cooperate in a spirit of collegiality with other members and work with them in the advancement of the purpose of TSBW.
